

DR GREER'S UFO MANIFESTO

One of the few things that UFO researchers do agree on is that there is a cover-up of information pertaining to the UFO phenomenon and, further, that the governments of the world are long overdue in coming clean with what the military knows on the subject.

Indeed, it has reached the point where an increasing number of people involved with UFO research on the 'inside' are considering 'defecting to their conscience'. They feel that the information they harbour is of such importance to humanity that it must be shared. Many have already 'defected', and can be seen speaking regularly at major international UFO conferences.

It would now appear that a mass 'defection' is imminent, as evidenced by the following letters.

Re: Planned Disclosure on the UFO/Extraterrestrial Subject and National Security Oaths

The CSETI (Center for the Study of Extraterrestrial Intelligence) Project Starlight initiative has now identified several dozen former and current military, intelligence and defense contractor-related witnesses to UFO/ETI events and projects. As set out in a number of documents and briefings (see enclosures) it is our intention to have these important witnesses provide open, public testimony on this matter in the very near future.

In the summer of 1995, we requested that the President take appropriate steps to allow these witnesses to speak openly, without civil, military or other penalties. Since then, there has been an exponential growth in the number of such witnesses who wish to come forward. Some of them are elderly, and suffering from serious medical conditions. We feel that these patriotic and courageous heroes of our country—who very much wish to tell their fellow citizens the truth on this matter—must not take this information to their graves. Therefore, we are asking from you a clear determination regarding their freedom to speak openly on this subject.

Over the past three years, we have found that members of Congress, the Executive Branch, military and intelligence leaders have not been briefed on this important matter, and that operations related to the subject exist as 'unacknowledged' special access projects. Most operations exist in the private aspects of the military-industrial sector, with apparently extra-constitutional funding and oversight.

As such, and until established otherwise to our satisfaction, we regard these operations, and all so-called 'security oaths' derived from them, as illegal, and therefore non-binding for these witnesses mentioned above.

Therefore, UNLESS OTHERWISE DIRECTED BY 1 JANUARY 1997, we will move forward with a series of events whereby these witnesses may provide open, public testimony. If we do not hear from you, or if we hear that you concur, we will proceed with a public disclosure after that date. Only if you notify us specifically that such witnesses to UFO/ETI-related matters are still bound to silence will our plans for a disclosure by them be altered.

As mentioned in previous briefings and documents to members of the Administration, the military, the Congress and others, it is our intent to effect this disclosure in a way which is scientific, forward-looking and hopeful. It is not our intent to cause instability for our nation or the world, but, rather, to mitigate the clear dangers which current covert management of this issue presents. We invite your advice, assistance and support in this process of disclosure on a matter which is arguably the most important of the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries.

Testimony from these witnesses will include, but not be limited to:

- Retrieval of disabled extraterrestrial devices and extraterrestrial life forms
- Reverse-engineering projects related to extraterrestrial technology
- Reconnaissance and tracking of UFO/extraterrestrial vehicles
- Covert projects related to the subject
- Confirmation of military/UFO encounter cases
- The nature and scope of disinformation programs related to the subject

We hope to hear from you regarding this matter as soon as possible.

Thank you for your attention to this request for a determination on the status of these witnesses as it relates to providing public testimony during 1997.

Respectfully,
Steven M. Greer, M.D.
Director of CSETI

At 12 am today, 1 January 1997, the deadline expired for US Government correction of our previously stated position that military, intelligence and other government-related witnesses to UFO events/projects were free to speak openly of their knowledge and experiences.

In a letter dated 15 November 1996, CSETI Project Starlight stated the position that, since projects related to UFOs exist and have existed outside legal constitutional oversight and control, all security oaths related to such projects are null and void. The letter stated that, "UNLESS OTHERWISE DIRECTED", this assessment would be regarded as accurate and all such government witnesses would be free to speak openly as of 1 January 1997.

This letter was sent to, and acknowledgement of receipt has been obtained from: [see list in previous letter. Ed.]

Additionally, this document has been sent to the US Supreme Court, and acknowledgement of receipt is pending.

The letter is attached to this file. Numerous background and position papers were enclosed with this letter, including a detailed listing of agencies, entities, corporations and covert facilities associated with the UFO/ET subject.

The "UNLESS OTHERWISE DIRECTED" (UNOD) format is routinely used in governmental and military situations and indicates that unless otherwise instructed, the position and described actions are approved implicitly. This letter clearly stated that we intend to assemble as many bona fide government officials and witnesses as possible, and that they will speak publicly and openly about their knowledge of UFO/ET events and covert projects.

Since the letter was issued, senior and reliable intelligence sources have stated that no response or interference would be forthcoming vis à vis plans for government witnesses to publicly come forward with their testimony.

Significantly, as of 1 January 1997, no government entity, official, agency, department or office has contradicted this assessment or stated that such government witnesses are any longer bound to silence.

CSETI Director Dr Steven Greer has been meeting with various government officials, including members of the US Congress (House and Senate), to discuss this matter and ask for open hearings on the subject of UFOs/ETI.

In preparation for these disclosures, and in light of the expiration of the above deadline, a meeting of such military, intelligence, government and corporate witnesses will be held later this winter. Bona fide witnesses, or contacts to such witnesses, should contact Dr Steven Greer immediately concerning participation in this event. A similar, but smaller, event was organized by CSETI in 1995, and was attended by US astronauts, US and Russian military officials and others.

The meeting this winter will assemble a significant number of such government UFO witnesses to meet with congressional and other public officials and to request open hearings within the Congress, so that they may testify openly about their knowledge and experiences related to UFOs/ETI.

Should Congress not agree to open hearings, other venues, such as the United Nations or a private disclosure event, will be pursued to effect a public acknowledgement of the reality of UFOs/ETI.

This notice may be distributed freely among all newsgroups, media and interested parties, without further permission or restrictions.

13,000-YEAR-OLD MESSAGE FROM ORBITING SPACESHIP?

In 1928, European radio operators in France, Germany, Norway and Holland noticed a strange phenomenon. When they transmitted a series of signals in all directions, they received two series of echoes instead of one. Normal echoes, after circling the Earth by bouncing several times on the ionosphere, always came back after a normal delay of one-seventh of one second.

On the contrary, abnormal echoes always came back after an interval varying from three to 15 seconds, as if they had bounced from some object located at a distance from Earth of 450,000 to 2,250,000 kilometres, but always a little bit farther than the Moon.

As usual, this discovery was kept as secret as possible, and after several years it was even completely forgotten.

Then a few years ago, a young Scottish astronomer by the name of Duncan Lunan had a bright idea. He thought that these signals could very well have come from an alien spaceship orbiting the Earth at about the same distance as the Moon, and that the variable intervals between the transmission of signals and reception of echoes might represent an intelligent, coded message representing geometric figures or even the map of a constellation, as Bracewell had already suggested in 1968.

With the usual television technique of so many dots per line and so many lines per frame, Lunan transferred the various intervals on a chart as he would have done on a television screen. He then successively obtained several different drawings of the same constellation, with different orientations but with the same star always at the centre.

As Lunan says in his book, Man and the Stars (Souvenir Press, London, 1974), as an astronomer it did not take him long to recognise the constellation as that of Bootes, and the star as Epsilon Bootis—which our ancestors called Izar, and which is located at about 103 light-years or 975 million million km from the Earth.

One of Lunan's important discoveries was that the configuration of the Bootes constellation shown on his charts was not exactly the same as that which we can see today from the Earth, and he found an explanation.

The big star, Alpha Bootis, or Arcturus, is one of the fastest moving stars in our skies. It has an angular motion of 2.29 seconds of arc per year in a south-west direction, and its position in the sky moves by an apparent diameter of the Moon in only 800 years.

According to Lunan, Arcturus now appears to us about seven degrees apart from where it appears on the chart, which means that the map could have been established and transmitted 11,000 years ago.

However, Arcturus does not move with a constant apparent velocity, and, taking an average of only two seconds of arc per year, we obtain a date of 12,600 years ago—which corresponds to those of the other stars of the same constellation.

As a consequence, assuming there is an alien spacecraft presently orbiting the Earth, it arrived in its present position about 13,000 years ago; and, after observing the configuration of their native constellation of Bootes as they saw it from their orbit around the Earth at that time, the astronauts on board have been continuously transmitting signals since then, waiting for human astronomers to become intelligent enough to understand them.

Finally, around 1900, the first radio signals were transmitted from Earth by Marconi, Tesla and others—and the Izarian astronauts knew they were now in business.

They started retransmitting the Earth signals, with various intervals representing a code and the code representing a map of the constellation of Bootes with the star Izar at the centre.

For me, however, the most extraordinary and the most controversial part of the story is not so much the constellation map as the intervals between the different signals from the alien spacecraft.

These intervals are always an exact number of seconds of time—and, as you know, our second of time is supposed to be a human invention. Up to now, the Sumerians have been credited with the fantastic idea of dividing the solar day into 86,400 equal parts they called seconds.

In other words, these alien astronauts from a distant planet in outer space, who had been orbiting our planet in a spacecraft for 13,000 years, knew from the very beginning that the human race divided the solar day into 86,400 seconds of time.

And how could they know it unless they made the division themselves, and landed on the Earth to teach the humans how to use the second to measure the passing of time?

ANOTHER SCIENTIST REVEALS UFO SECRETS

Virtually every UFO researcher on the planet is familiar with the name of Robert Lazar, who claimed to have worked on projects that consisted primarily of 'back-engineering' alien craft while based at the super-secret Area 51 in Nevada, USA. As usual, opinion has been divided as to the credibility of his story.

But now, another scientist has come forward who pretty much confirms most of Lazar's story, and goes a lot further.

Dr Michael Wolf, Emeritus of the New England Institute for Advanced Research, Member of the New York Academy of Science, and Patron Member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, has decided to go public with his knowledge of alien contact, abduction experiences and technology.

Now in his mid-50s, Dr Wolf is dying from a degenerative spinal condition, and wishes the truth about UFOs to be known.

When American UFO researcher James Courant, in a taped interview, asked Dr Wolf why he was going public with this information at this time, he replied:

"I'm going public at this time for the people. I've been encouraged by people in the government. You know, there's a whole new generation of bureaucrats now; they're younger. The older people are retiring—I wouldn't say dying off, but technically they are retiring and they're out of business. A lot of young people come in and are saying,

"Why does our government have to keep lying?"

During the interview, Dr Wolf told of working as a security consultant for the National Security Council, and also of working at Area 51 as a Team Leader, in terms of scientific teams trying to 'back-engineer' alien technology.

When pressed for specifics on the number of alien 'ships', etc., Dr Wolf replied: "Well, I think we have nine or more...not in working condition, not to mention the pieces of one we've had. But I've always wondered a very basic question, which no one has really been able to answer, and that is, 'Have they deliberately given us this technology, to see what we're going to do with it? Is it a test?' The crashed ships and dead bodies—are they waiting for the day, if it hasn't occurred already, that we're going to combine human and alien DNA and try a hybrid of our own?"

Courant invited Dr Wolf to comment on Bob Dean's claim to have seen an "Assessment" classified Cosmic Top Secret, and Wolf's own claim to have seen the same document:

"You saw the similar "Assessment" documents that Bob Dean saw?" asked Courant.

"NATO Assessments, Blue Border Reports—yes, I did," replied Dr Wolf, and added: "Bob wasn't too far off the mark. I did see some 'interrupts' of the governments...which, don't forget, makes its own copies of UFO films...they go around, videotapes...and I had people who would send me copies of those tapes. I saw five minutes of Bob Dean at a MUFON [Mutual UFO Network] conference; and I looked at it and I said, 'I want to find out more about this guy' because what he'd read, I'd read. What he was talking about—I had read the same thing."

Dr Wolf insisted that the US Government "...has had relations [with aliens], whether you want to call them informal treaties or real treaties. I don't know what the alien understanding of that is, but I'm sure if they were trading technology for abducting a few people to take sperm or eggs...I think that was more than a few."

"Is the treaty just done with one group of aliens?" asked Courant.

"No," said Dr Wolf, "I think it was done with several. I know the Nordics are pretty much involved with the Greys. I don't know whether there are several Greys, but I have never met a Grey I didn't like [chuckle]. But the fact is that the only Greys I have ever come into contact with, have dolphin-like skin and personalities to match... physical effects are just like the dolphins; they want to be touched and cared about."

"But there are people writing books about their traumatic kidnappings and abductions," argued Courant.

"Well," replied Dr Wolf, "you have got to understand and put yourself in the place of the first-time abductee. It is a shock. You are being exposed to a world that you don't know even exists; everything is, if you'll pardon the pun, 'alien' to you. You're suddenly separated from your comfortable existence where you know most of the things that are going to happen to you. Here, it's a situation where you have no idea what's going to happen next. Of course it is going to induce post-traumatic stress disorder."

"There are 35-40,000 starving children a day dying on this planet and there are a lot of Hollywood stars and a lot of other people who are very, very concerned with what we're doing to this planet, and what we're doing to the children who are the hope and future of the world. Which is why I'm going public... I've offered a well-written book, a good book, and all the proceeds go to a children's charity. I'm not making a nickel," said Dr Wolf.

"You feel the time is now to get the truth out?" asked Courant.

"The time is now," replied Dr Wolf.
